

DIVI HOTEL NEW ALHAMBRA BAZAAR

Friday, May 24, 1985 DIVI HOTELS AND ALBO ARUBA N.V. celebrate "Spantenbier" of the AL HAMBRA BAZAAR. The Bazaar is scheduled to open its door on July 27, 1985 three months ahead of schedule, just in time for the annual shareholder's meeting of the Corporation. The Bazaar will be in keeping in style with the spectacular architecture of the Alhambra Casino. An intricate complex of small plaza's streets, stairways interconnecting different levels, fountains and intimate corners will host a bevy of luxury stores, spectacular, nightclubs and exciting eating establishments. The Bazaar is pure entertainment and fantasy. Aladdin, a three tiered theater seating 120 guests, will feature Aruban and Latin Entertainment. Auditions for Aruban dancers and musicians will start the first week of June. Across from the Aruba Beach Club will be the showplace of the Bazaar-Roseland a huge nightclub sitting 250 guests will reproduce the mood and music of the 30/40's. An authentic Big Band will provide the sound of Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey, Glenn Miller, Les Brown and his band of renown. There will be a unique opportunity for young professional Aruban musicians to reach a new level. An absolute must is the ability to read music. During the coming years, we hope to be able eventually to form an Aruban Big Band. But this takes time says Roger Coster. Very few musicians graduate to this level of professionalism. Overlooking the plaza will be New York, New York, a real Deli Restaurant where the cook will prepare his own fresh corned beef guarantees Michael Jordan, Director of Food and Beverage for the company. While the chef has not yet been hired, the company is rumored to be in the process of raiding one of the great New York Deli Chefs. Another of Divi's food operation will be the Oyster Bar with fresh clams and oysters flown in from Boston. An absolute first in the Divi History, will be the establishment of an independent Food operation-Kentucky Fried Chicken will be opening its second franchise in Aruba. We approached Mr. John Chemaly, explained Roger Coster, as a restaurant operator with a first class reputation. Furthermore, the proximity of the Casbah Hotel, makes Mr. Chemaly a member of the low rise family. Another low rise company with a store in the Alhambra will be Casa del Mar, the new project of Sun Development

Cont. on page 5